FEATURE BUSINESS PROGRAM

Ginger and Chuck Duffy –Owners, Country Cloth

Ginger explained that her and her husband purchased the business from the Tryon's 33 years ago. They have weathered the economic downturn as other business and reported they have just recently seen business improve. They offer sewing classes to adults and children and some people look upon sewing as not just a hobby – more of an addiction! They offer quilting classes, sewing, home decorating and are involved with the Arnold Santa Project. Country Cloth is open Monday through Saturday beginning in October from 10:00 – 5:00. Before that, they were open 7 days per week. Night classes are offered in the summer.

Council Member Kulm thanked them for their presentation – Chuck Duffy showed samples of the many items they teach others to make in their classes. Mayor Morris stated she has two left hands, could they teach her to sew? Ginger assured her they could.
